

You are invited to participate in ...

What: Creating Concept – Based Curriculum Units – K-12

When: February 23 AND February 26 – a 2 day Training

Where: Pikes Peak BOCES, 2883 South Circle Drive, Colorado Springs

Time: 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. – 2 day training (Both days required)

Who: Trainer Jan Berry and Facilitator Anne Howard

Please sign up by either emailing Anne Howard, at ahoward@ppbores.org or register on-line through Professional Development on the BOCES website at www.ppbores.org.

What else: Teachers will be paid $1,000 each to attend this 2 day training and develop instructional units. Lunch, a Professional Book, a Certificate & Materials included. Work over the weekend will be required and there will be a product requirement in order to get the stipend. A Check List will be used to guide the feedback to Participants. Some rewriting may be needed after the actual class is over. You will have one week to complete the re-write. Participants will be expected to take the Concept-Based Curriculum Writing method and research-based strategies back to their teams and schools. This strategy is CDE approved.